Island Hopping

Come island hopping with...

ALFRESCO

2013 has been another big year and even after 15 years since starting Alfresco Emporium I'm still passionate about bringing different collections to you. Once again, this year's catalogue has been inspired by travel and in particular, island hopping. We have covered the globe and been drawn to four very diverse islands; Nantucket Island off the coast of the USA, the stunning Seychelles, the colours of Barbados and one of my personal favourites, Greece's Santorini... the home of sundowners and sunsets.

I hope you enjoy island hopping with us through the pages of this catalogue. As you flick through make sure you keep an eye out for our tradition of hiding a little iron fairy statue. Yes, that's right, she has been hiding between the pages for many years. Please join us on our fairy hunt.

We are also very excited to reveal that in early 2014 we are launching our new website, which will be easier to navigate, include a blog and bring you lots of new products. We value your comments and feedback so please feel free to share your thoughts online.

Whether your style is classic coastal, like you find in Nantucket, or you prefer the bright palette of Barbados, I hope you are inspired to bring a piece of island life to your home, which will be with you long after the holiday buzz has gone.

I look forward to seeing you in-store soon or for a friendly chat online.

A tropical scene featuring a large, round, hanging wicker chair with a white and teal patterned cushion. In the foreground, a woman with long brown hair, wearing a white top and a colorful floral skirt, sits on a stone ledge. She is surrounded by two children: a young girl in a colorful patterned dress and a young boy in a white shirt and blue shorts. They are all playing a board game with black and white pieces on a white board. The background is a lush, green tropical garden with various plants and trees.
